Such is the contented hum of the busy Howland sewing machine.

What comfort and help it brings into the sewing-room! How it helps in carrying forward smoothly and speedly the work of completing all the under-garments and dresses for Spring!

Such a machine stands ready to come to your sewing-room; to begin its work for you; to do that work to your satisfaction.

Starting its service is simple. All that's necessary is to join the Howland club and make the promise made by all members; to pay the first amount of one dollar; to choose the type of machine you like best.

Immediately, that machine is placed right in your own home sewing-room—and there it sings its cheery song and does its helpful part; sewing and saving while it is being paid for in easy and pleasant fashion.

Come and see the Howland machines in service. Test one!
